

who we are

The Arbor Circle Corporation is a Michigan nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization governed by a 15-member volunteer Board of Directors. The Board of Directors ensures the organization meets its mission, has a strong, well-understood identity within the community, and has long-term sustainability to provide high quality and responsive programs to the people and communities it serves. The organization is accredited by the Joint Commission, a nationally recognized accrediting body, and undergoes an independent financial audit annually.

arbor circle's mission statement

Arbor Circle advances mental wellbeing through counseling and supportive services in partnership with people and communities.

arbor circle's vision statement

Arbor Circle is a valued partner in shaping a community where all people can flourish.

arbor circle's values

Arbor Circle is guided by the following values in how it delivers services and how the board, staff and volunteers meet the needs of the community:

- Listening
- Engagement
- Growth

Arbor Circle guides people to build strengths, skills, and support networks that strengthens their emotional health and well-being and allows them to overcome or even avoid life's challenges. The agency develops these skills through a wide variety of counseling, education, family development and prevention programs addressing everything from school readiness and child abuse prevention to substance use and homelessness. Strong, therapeutic relationships are the hallmark of Arbor Circle's mission and work.
